

St. Kizito Updates

St. Kizito just completed the first semester of 2008. Computer teacher, Denis Mwa recently updated 4 Oneworld on the progress of his Senior Three class. These students chose Information Computer Technology (ICT) as one of their elective classes. At the start of the semester only 4 out of 31 had some computer knowledge and 21 students said that they were unable to do anything on the computers.

Denis reports that, now, they all can perform basic operations on the computer, using Microsoft word, Excel and Internet Explorer and says, "I do consider this a success for the project." He intends to cover Microsoft Access, Power Point, and Webpage Design next term. This will leave the topics of computer networking and maintenance for the final term of 2008.

Currently St. Kizito students are enjoying a break. Semester II will begin on the 19th of May.
